SA Flawless Laser & Med Spa

Aesthetic care should not only focus on the physical. Inner transformation should also be prioritized.

This is what makes outstanding medical spas stand out from the pack. The keen observation and understanding that every client is different is important - there is no "one-size, fits-all" approach when it comes to excellent skin care.

And this is why SA Flawless Laser & Med Spa truly knows how to transform clients to their flawless selves. By addressing every client as a unique case, excellent and personalized care and treatment plans can be given. Even better, this medical spa offers impressive services that won't burn holes in anyone's pockets! Truly, SA Flawless Laser & Med Spa is a one-of-a-kind aesthetic center!

Challenge

And even though SA Flawless Laser & Med Spa provides flawless services, the same excellent results, unfortunately, couldn't be seen on how the medical spa markets itself online. Even though the med spa has a website, proper lead generation and SEO coverage weren't done. In fact, SA Flawless Laser & Med Spa's old website did not generate any leads at all.

The medical spa also had trouble creating relevant blog content. As a result, potential clients had trouble learning about what SA Flawless Laser & Med Spa could have provided for them.

Solution

It was great then that SA Flawless Laser & Med Spa discovered Growth99. Seeing the very impressive track record of ranking medical firms and various businesses in all sorts of industries in the digital space, the med spa decided to get Growth99 as their dedicated online marketing partner.

And what a great move was that for the medical spa. Growth99 provided SA Flawless Laser & Med Spa a state-of-the-art website. Doing so, quality leads have been sourced out, which resulted in more sales online.

Additionally, Growth99 created better blog content. And these content entries were linked to a solid social media strategy, to reach out to a wider and focused group of potential clients.

Best of all, these changes were done in a rapid manner - Growth99 knew that time was of the essence for SA Flawless Laser & Med Spa.
