Belle Visage offers consultation and aesthetic solutions for skin troubles for women and men of all age groups along with special facilities for teenagers. The team of staff at Belle Visage understands that feeling comfortable with your looks and appearance shapes up your confidence.

Challenge

Belle Visage and Growth99 have been associated with each other since September 2020. Dr. Michelle Beeson had seen the work Growth99 had done for a few other websites. She was looking for something similar for Belle Visage. She hoped to reach out to more people via an impressive website and SEO driven content.

Belle Visage wanted to expand their patient base through social media advertising and digital marketing strategies. Dr. Michelle Beeson wished to display Belle Visage in a very impressive manner via a robust website.

Solution

Growth99 focused on SEO techniques, blogs and other word based content to create a brand new website for Belle Visage. An attractive website which displayed the services of Belle Visage impressively helped to confirm more patient bookings than before. Belle Visage saw an increase in their website users as well as online bookings.

A growing base of happy patients is helping Belle Visage to move up the success ladder quickly. Growth99 ensures that quality content is regularly posted on the website as well as social media platforms for Belle Visage.
